The Gateway to the Northwest. Overlooking one of the most beautiful lakes in the world, WorldMark Arrow Point on Lake Coeur d'Alene is picturesque and inviting. With the lake's 135 miles of shoreline, there's plenty of room for swimming, water-skiing, parasailing and kayaking, as well as some of the best fishing in the world. And when the season is right, grab your gear and head out to Silver Mountain for some world-class skiing, tubing or snowboarding. Whatever your pleasure, Coeur d'Alene captures the essence of the Great Northwest. Tree-lined mountain roads travel past rolling green fields, offering endless mountain views. Tucked away on the other side of Lake Coeur d'Alene, WorldMark Arrow Point is about 30 minutes from downtown — home to the world's largest floating boardwalk.
