Located on the New South Wales Mid North Coast, Club Wyndham Port Stephens is situated in a picturesque rainforest and coastal setting. The self-contained accommodation at Club Wyndham Port Stephens includes two-bedroom apartments that boast fully equipped kitchens, spacious living and dining areas, and laundry facilities. Port Stephens is known as the “blue water paradise” and is renowned for its natural beauty, crystal clear waterways, unspoiled national parks and great fishing. Whether it’s a relaxing getaway or a fun-packed active holiday, Port Stephens’ activities and attractions appeal to all. Between late May and early November, the waters of Port Stephens become a haven for whales on their annual migration, plus you can see dolphins all year round with a cruise from Nelson Bay. Famous for fishing, Port Stephens offers many offshore reefs for the amateur or more experienced fisher, as well as great fishing just within the port. In addition to water activities including swimming, surfing, diving, snorkeling or cruising, Port Stephens also has much to do on dry land. The views of Port Stephens are simply amazing from the top of Tomaree Headland and the moderate climate makes it ideal for hiking and golf. RESORT FACILITIES: The pools and facilities at Horizons Golf Resort, are privately owned by the golf club and are not available for use by owners or guests. Owners and guests staying at Club Wyndham Port Stephens are able to enjoy the facilities, including the pool at Club Wyndham Shoal Bay. Please contact Club Wyndham Shoal Bay on 024984-8100 or visit Reception to arrange your day pass and resort map. Pool towels are also available from the Reception desk
