A Colorful Urban Experience. From Aquatic Park at Fisherman's Wharf in San Francisco, you can scan the horizon and gaze upon the Golden Gate Bridge, the San Francisco Bay, Alcatraz Island and the Presidio without changing spots. It's a magical city filled with spectacular colors. You'll recognize many areas from all the movies that have been filmed here, even if it's your first visit. Located in a historic 1908 building on the corner of Bush and Stockton streets, WorldMark San Francisco is just a short walk from Chinatown, Nob Hill and Union Square, and one block from a stop for the famous Powell Street Cable Car which takes you to Bay Street at Fisherman's Wharf. Whether you want the best view or the best seafood of your life, you'll find it in the city by the bay. IMPORTANT: WorldMark San Francisco is undergoing a complete renovation, commencing September 2020 with an estimated completion date of 31st March 2021. No new reservations will be accepted during this period.
