The Sundance Resort Izu-Kogen is located in the Izu-Kogen Highlands in the city of Ito, known as a summer resort area with plenty of nature to enjoy in the mountains or along the sea. In addition to its beautiful natural surroundings, another charm of the Izu-Kogen Highlands is its numerous art and history museums. The white sand beaches of the Izu Peninsula are a rare find on mainland Japan, neighbored by beautiful cliffs, tumbling hills, and natural hot springs. As Japan's largest producer of green tea, the age-old tradition of tea drinking is ubiquitous in Shizuoka, from the miles of tea fields to the old tea houses hosting traditional tea ceremonies. Izu-Kogen has a moderate maritime climate with hot, humid summers, and short, cool winters. The annual mean temperature is 15°C, with an average maximum of 25°C in summer & an average minimum of 5°C in winter. IMPORTANT: This resort has limited rooms with private bathrooms and western style beds. All other rooms have a private toilet only and no private bath or shower. Bathing for those rooms is via public baths only in the indoor onsen (mineral hot springs). Clothing, swimwear and the display of tattoos are not permitted in onsens. Japan offers a unique cultural experience and is very different to the style of resorts in the club. When confirming a reservation, please review the 10 tips for your first Japan holiday, Travelling in Japan and the Onsen - Getting the most out of Japan's hot springs blogs and Before You Go - Izu-Kogen web page to prepare you with the information you require when staying at this property.
